I'm going to work with 10 visionary founders whose businesses are no longer able to hold the truth of who they've become.

Here's what we're doing...

Our goal is this:

To unmute the bold truth your business is meant to carry and act on it.

So you:

- Are compelled to share your bold ideas.
- Move forward without hesitation.
- Attract the people who can't help but say YES.

More money.

More meaning.

And a whole lot more freedom.

This isn't a business or marketing course.

It's a real-time reset to help you evolve your business from the inside out. And it will radically transform the way you approach your work.

This is not for you if:

- You're just starting out and haven't made a sale yet.
- You're chasing scale, managing a big team, and constantly in meetings.
- You're committed to doing things the traditional way.
- You'd rather stay comfortable than make a bold move.

But it is for you if:

- You have clients, but you know you're meant for more.
- You're full of ideas, but they rarely make it past the page.
- You've outgrown your current business – and you can feel it.
- Desire is starting to outweigh fear – and you're ready to follow it.

Here's the truth:

That stuckness you feel?
It's not a mindset problem.
It's not a messaging issue.

It's the result of a business trying to carry an expression it was never designed for.

The longer you push your energy through an outdated container, the more your:

- Momentum stalls.
- Message loses its power.
- Work shrinks just to stay manageable.

So let's do something different.

Let's stop "fixing" things and get real about what's true right now.

This 90-minute reset isn't theoretical. It's a real-time shift.

We'll work in cycles — not slides.

Through guided inquiry and fast iteration, we'll surface what's true and act on it immediately.

Each loop gets you closer to:

- What your business actually wants to say now
- What it's no longer willing to carry
- And what becomes possible when you stop molding yourself to fit what no longer fits you

You'll walk away with:

- The clearest, boldest language you've used in months
- A next-level structure that can finally hold your voice, energy, and direction
- A message that doesn't just sound good — it feels inevitable
- The clarity to stop spinning and start building what's next

This is for founders who move fast, think deeply, and are done being stuck inside something that no longer fits.

It's not about scaling harder.

It's about letting your business evolve — from the inside out.
